Burke Is Sentenced To 3 Years In Prison

by CHARLES JOHNSTON

Phil Burke, former Antioch resident and failed candidate for mayor, was sentenced to three years in prison by Circuit Court Judge John Hughes on July 16 for passing bad checks in Antioch and harassing witnesses.

According to Antioch Police Lt. Tom

Fisher, after Burke was convicted earlier this year for the bad checks, he began calling the police station to leave weird messages. In one, he told the dispatcher to let Fisher know that he (Burke) was going to be out of town for the weekend, so Fisher could relax.

In other incidents, Burke turned in a false fire alarm and left a series of weird, if not bizarre messages.

"Knowing his background, I considered them threatening," Fisher said. "He apparently was not aware that all calls to the police department are automatically recorded. When we went to court, he claimed that we had come up with a way to record his voice and make up phony tapes."

During his trial, Burke claimed he was a graduate of Texas A and M University, that he had been a pilot for TWA from 1955 to 1963, and that he had gone to work for TWA immediately upon his discharge from the Air Force as a reconnaissance pilot.

The State's Attorney's office discovered that Texas A and M University showed that Burke had taken a biology course in 1955, but had no record of him graduating.

The Antioch Police Dept., checking with TWA found that it had no record of a Phil Burke ever having worked for the company.

Judge Hughes, a former Air Force pilot, noted that it was impossible to go directly from military aviation to commercial aviation without going through training.

Calling Burke a "pathological liar," Asst. State's Atty. Dave DeRose asked for a stiff sentence.

Judge Hughes, in passing sentence, noted that Burke had not learned from his previous probation and that his conduct had to be stopped.

Commission Does The Job On Main St.

Both the village board and the Antioch Redevelopment Commission can take a few bows after turning a vacant storefront into a brand new business.

Over $13,000 was spent to rehabilitate the building at 935 Main St. that once housed E.J.'s Cameras.

At the regular board meeting on July 21, Antioch's board of trustees signed a two-year lease on the property with Bran's Nuts, which also has a similar store in Wauconda. Bran's Nuts will have a five-year renewal option after the initial lease expires in the summer of 1988.

The redevelopment commission is also working on the Antioch Mall project, which will provide expanded parking for the downtown area and will serve as an excellent location for some community events, such as the RV, Boat, and Auto Show. The mall will feature a gazebo.

Speaking at a Rotary meeting, Art Neckerman, project chairman for the Antioch Mall project, said that the commission seeks to encourage new development in the village and to preserve and restore existing storefronts. He spoke of the importance of maintaining a good balance of both small and large spaces for businesses in the community.

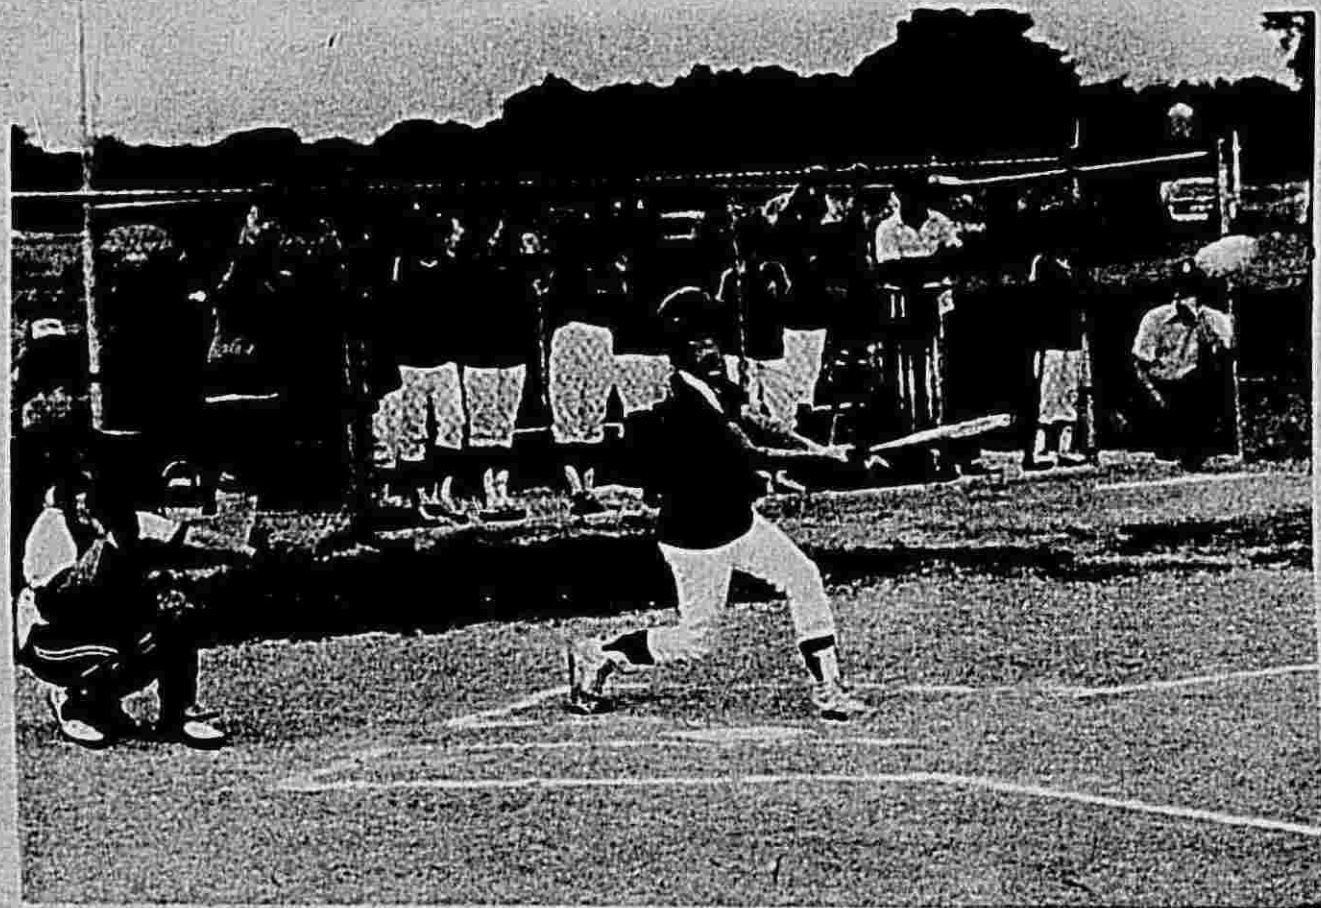

"By doing that, we encourage small businesses to get a start in Antioch and give them a place to move in our town once they get larger," he said.

In other business, the village board, —received a petition from Violet and Irwin Hermanson seeking re-zoning to allow them to build two four-unit apartment buildings on two lots.

—accepted the resignation of police dispatcher Kim Kut.

—approved the issuance of over $2 million in revenue bonds for capital improvements.

—allocated $2,000 to fix the roof in the laboratory building at the sanitary treatment plant.

Lions Seek Items For Auction At Barbecue

After months of planning, Antioch Lions Club members are again ready to entertain the public at their annual Chicken Barbecue Picnic and Auction at Williams Park on Sunday, Aug. 3 from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m.

All events will be held at the Antioch Aqua Center and the Lions Club Pavilion in Williams Park. Dinner tickets, which are $4 each, are available from Lions members, the First National Bank of Antioch, the State Bank of Antioch, Great American Federal Savings and Loan, and the Bank of Waukegan's Antioch Facility.

Events of the day will include lots of fun for the kids, featuring games, races, and prizes. The games are scheduled to begin at noon with six age brackets, including one for young adults. The festivities will be presided over by Miss Antioch, Tamara Krause.

The big auction will begin at 1 p.m. and will be conducted by auctioneer Herman Behm. All proceeds from the auction will go to the Antioch Rescue Squad. The Lions continue to seek donated items for the auction. Anyone interested in donating an item that is in good condition should call the village hall at (312) 395-1000.

School Forms Committee

The Board of Education of Grass Lake School District 36, has announced the formation of a citizens advisory committee.

The purpose of the committee is to study the current and long term financial condition of Grass Lake School. The advisory committee will advise and consult with the school board on methods of meeting the future educational needs of the district.

The first meeting to formulate a committee was held Monday, July 14 at 7 p.m. The meeting was called to order by the board of education president, Ardeen Harris and chaired by Arthur Smejkal, interim superintendent.

John Freshman was appointed chairperson of the committee and Carolyn Adams was appointed recording secretary.

The next committee meeting will be held Tuesday, July 29, at 7 p.m. The public is invited to attend these important meetings.

The agenda for the evening will center around methods to finance the school's current and future educational programs.

Albuquerque Mayor To 'Come Home' For Picnic

The office of Mayor Ken Schultz, of Albuquerque, New Mexico said that the mayor will attend the annual Lions Club Picnic and Auction Fundraiser in Antioch to be held Sunday, August 3. The mayor's visit to Antioch, his hometown, will be the first one in five years. Schultz moved to Albuquerque 12 years ago. While a resident of Antioch, he owned three auto dealerships; Ken Schultz Buick of Kenosha, Crystal Lake Dodge of Crystal Lake, and Ken-Wal Dodge of Antioch. Schultz served as president and general manager of all three dealerships.

Proceeds from the picnic and auction are used to help fund the Antioch Volunteer Rescue Squad, of which Schultz was a former member. The Albuquerque Mayor said, "I am honored to be a part of this year's gala event, and look forward to 'going home' to visit with relatives and long-time friends." Schultz said he looks forward to meeting with Antioch Mayor Ray Toft. The two will discuss municipal government.

Mayor Schultz will donate a special "Limited Edition" key to the City of Albuquerque which was designed by the Mayor and is only given to visiting dignitaries. The special key will be entered into the auction, and the highest bidder will receive a special invitation to meet with Mayor Schultz on a future visit to Albuquerque, population, 440,000.

Schultz will also issue an executive order proclaiming August 3 Volunteer Rescue Squad Day in Albuquerque, annually.

He will be accompanied by First Lady Diane Schultz and family members.

School Is Set To Begin In 1 Month

by GLORIA DAVIS

It might be hard to believe with the area beaches just starting to swell with crowds because of the current heave wave, but the school bells will start to ring in a little over a month.

At its regular school board meeting, the Antioch High School Board of Education heard Dir. of Personnel Peter Pekkarinen report that the registration for the 1986-87 school year is scheduled on Monday, Aug. 18 for freshman; Tuesday, Aug. 19 for sophomores; Wednesday, Aug. 20 for juniors and seniors will sign-up on Thursday, Aug. 21.

Freshman will start school on Friday, Aug. 22 and classes for all students will commence on Monday, Aug. 25.

There has been much discussion in the last few years on the possibility that area schools would be mandated to reorganize. With the Ill. State Legislature changing the law in March, to one requiring no involuntary organization, the board was interested in a report given by Regional Supt. of Schools Bill Thompson.

Thompson reported to the school board and the underlying elementary board representatives that were present on the contents of the final reorganization report to be filed with the Ill. State Board of Education that included a plan calling for no involuntary reorganization.

In other business, the board approved the filling of one head and six assistant coaching positions for next year.

Timothy Otten will be the new boys' tennis coach. Besides teaching social studies, Charles C. Trout will be an assistant track and soccer coach.

Ted Sieckowski will assist in coaching wrestling and football; Pattie Thelen boys' tennis assistant coach, Charlene Scherbauch assistant girls' tennis coach and Steve Owens will be an assistant boys' soccer coach. Jackie Parkman was hired as assistant girls' soccer coach.

The board decided to hold the line on general school fees, which will remain at $25 for returning students and $30 for new students.

School lunches will still go for the same $1 per lunch.

Legat Architects developed a life safety report on the physical condition of the school building calling for $119,200 in safety updates. The board was told that the implementation of these corrections will bring the present school building into compliance with the state's requirements. The report will be turned into the state.

Score Wimbledon Trip A Love-Love Win

by GLORIA DAVIS

Antioch High School's 1986 varsity tennis team can boast of having a member that came in second in a tennis tourney played at Wimbledon, England.

Jessica Druktanis, 17, daughter of Robert and Pat Druktanis, Lindenhurst, and her mother will never forget the 1986 Wimbledon Tournament. They were there right in the third row watching Martina win again.

They were almost close enough to see the sweat on Yvonne Lendl's brow as he bowed to last year's champ, Boris Becker.

What is a nice tennis-playing Lindenhurst girl doing at Wimbledon watching the best racketeers in the world?

The Druktanis' have the fact that they signed up for cable tv a few years ago and most of all the fact that they decided to subscribe to the Home Box Office(HBO) movie channel to thank for a trip to England and the Wimbledon Tourney that was not only as good as they expected, but much more.

Jessica and Pat won the top prize in HBO's Wimbledon Sweepstakes.

They left for New York on June 30 and after spending a night in the "Big Apple," flew to London where they were graciously housed in one of London's finest hotels, the Hyde Park, and for the rest of the week "treated like royalty."

Besides the special seats at the tournament's finals, both gals were allowed to play on Wimbledon's grass practice courts. And guess who was playing right behind them one day, her tennis highness, Martina, of course!

Jessica being the tennis buff that she is, was really thrilled by all this, as was her mother who just returned few years ago to the game she had played in college.

Side benefits included being shown around town in the first class tradition of Tennis Magazine which saw they they were served memorable gourmet lunches on the finest of china and crystal daily while at the tourney.

A shopping trip to Harrod's(when the royalty shops) to buy French perfume(at a price), a tennis warm-up suit and some souvenirs, also rates high on their list of outstanding memories.

They dined at the world famous Cafe Royal Wine Cellar, rocked at the Hard Rock Cafe and Jessica helped represent the U.S.A. at the Hypadrome, which is now a disco, as American music abounded on the Fourth of July.

When asked her impressions of England, Jessica said "the friendliness of the people and the gorgeous flowers spilling out everywhere from windowboxes."

"I've never seen so many lovely huge roses," she added.

"The people over there, especially the women, dress up much more than they do here," she added.

But the biggest thrill of all came when Jessica ended up in the finals of the amateur doubles tournament and came home with a silver cup engraved with her name as a winner at Wimbledon.

St. Peters Plans Summerfest

St. Peters of Antioch will celebrate Summerfest '86, July 26, on the parish grounds, located at 557 Lake St. Antioch.

The annual summer fun event will get underway at 6 p.m. (rain or shine) with an evening of fun for the entire family. Games for the children, clowns, and a dunk tank are a few of the activities planned. There will be tasty items from the grill, including hot dogs, hamburgers, corn-on-the-cob, homemade desserts, a full service bar. For dancing and listening pleasure, The Jones Boys Band will appear.

Tickets for food and drink are available at the entrance. Hope to see you there!

Ceramics, Jewelry To Be Displayed

Ceramic and porcelain pottery by Chicago artist Eric Jensen along with gold and silver jewelry by Iowa City artist Don Rinner are on exhibit in the display case at Good Shepherd Hospital.

The display, sponsored by the Gallery Committee of the Auxiliary of Good Shepherd, is located just east of the information desk on the ground floor of the hospital. All of the items are for sale; 25 percent of each sale will benefit the auxiliary. Jensen studied ceramics at the Cranbrook Academy of Art, painting and ceramics at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, and architecture at Iowa State University.

Rinner began creating jewelry as a hobby in 1961 and on a full-time basis in 1974. He uses 14-carat gold along with sterling silver and gem stones that he cuts himself.

For more information, call Good Shepherd at (312) 381-9600, extension 5104.

To Host Concert

Calvary Temple Christian Center will be sponsoring "Turning Point '86," a free outdoor rock music concert on July 26, from 2 p.m. until 10 p.m. at Eagle Creek Plaza in Round Lake Beach.

A live performance of eight hours of music by four top bands will make this event a real "Turning Point" in everyone's life. Refreshments will be on sale.

Junior Fair Kids Part Of Fair

Junior fair exhibits and activities will be an integral part of the 1986 Wisconsin State Fair, July 31-Aug. 10.

Known as "a fair within a fair," the junior fair highlights the activities of state youth organizations such as 4-H, Future Farmers of America (FFA), Vocational Industrial Clubs of America (VICA) and Boy Scouts of America.

4-H's will feature a mechanical science booth with a tractor safety theme daily in the Youth Expo. Fairgoers will be able to use remote controls to steer small tractors through an obstacle course. "The purpose of the demonstration is to show people how difficult it is to maneuver large farm tractors," said Doris Swinehart, Wisconsin State Fair youth activities coordinator.

The "4-H By the Slice" booth will use various subject areas to storyboard what 4-H is all about. The Youth Expo stage will be the site of 4-H fashion shows held four times daily. Crafts, clothing, woodworking projects and photography are a few of the 4-H projects which will be on display.

Music will fill the Youth Expo and children's area, sponsored by Burger King, as 800 of Wisconsin's best youth musicians perform daily in 4-H music groups. The 4-H Folk Arts Ensemble, a select group from the 800 musicians, will perform July 31-Aug. 4 in the International Amphitheater and on the Youth Expo stage.

The junior fair will also host action centers, demonstrating areas of expertise of 4-H and FFA members. Nutrition, cake decorating and pet health care are some of the subjects the youth organizations will be spotlighting.

The FFA Band and Chorus will highlight the International Amphitheater and Youth Expo stage Aug.

4-7. They will also play at the Governor's Blue Ribbon Livestock Auction Aug. 6 at 6 p.m. in the Coliseum.

Rounding out the junior fair activities will be award-winning state high school jazz ensembles and swing choirs, performing daily in the Activity Dome. Mini concerts will take place around the fairgrounds as marching high school bands and drum and bugle corps from Wisconsin and Illinois compete for awards.

Another showcase for Wisconsin's talented youth is the Young People's Art Exhibit, located in the gallery under the grandstand building. Outstanding artwork and sculpture will be on display every day from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Free Screenings

Victory Health Outreach Center, 121 E. Grand Ave., Lake Villa, will provide free blood pressure screenings from 8 a.m. to noon, Monday, July 28. No appointments are needed for this weekly community service.

Rehearse 'No Sex'

Rehearsing PM&L Theater's new production, 'No Sex Please, We're British,' are from left, Peter Thelen, Larry Andres and Linda Williams.

Smouse To Direct Farce

The curtain is going up on "No Sex Please, We're British," the hilarious farce by Anthony Marriott and Alistair Foot at the PM&L Theatre, 877 Main St., Antioch, on Aug. 1, 2, 8, 9, 15 and 16 at 8:30 p.m. and on Sunday, Aug. 10 at 2:30 p.m. The theatre is air conditioned for comfort.

Director Ken Smouse from Antioch has picked an all star cast and has an efficient production crew. This blend is sure to bring a fast moving, side splitting English farce to area theatre-goers, just the right combination for light summer fare.

Assisting Smouse is Michael Shehorn from McHenry serving as stage manager. Shehorn is drama director at Antioch Community High School. The costume plot is being created by his wife Donna.

Lighting will be handled by Ron Casey from Fox Lake and Pat Mouton and Scott Kiederlen from Antioch.

All important properties are being collected by Jane Palmer, Shirley Jensen, and Pat Germain from Antioch.

The set (which includes six doors and a stairway which are constantly being run into, out of, up and down in increasing confusion) was designed by Smouse and constructed by him, Hank, Al and Tricia Apostol from Antioch, Mouton, Shehorn and Katie Kramer from Fox Lake. Tom Hannigan from Antioch is artist in residence. Publicity is being done by Betty Smouse with photos by Tom Hausman.

Reservations must be made to assure theatre patrons of seating availability. Call (312) 395-3055 for reservations now. Tickets must be picked up at the box office no later than 8:15 p.m. night of performance.

Special dinner-theatre packages can be arranged by calling The Village Pub, 899 Main St., Antioch, (312) 395-3373; Struggles Restaurant, Rtes. 59 and 173, Antioch, (312) 395-9400; or Hoff's Columbia Bay Tavern, 38744 N. Hwy. 59, Lake Villa, (312) 356-8550.

Childbirth Classes

On Thursday, July 31, from 7 to 9 p.m., Victory Hospital will begin a six-week Childbirth With Joy class. For additional information and registration call (312) 360-4246. The instructor will be Becky Kamman, R.N., B.S.N. The fee for the class is $60.

Old Steam Locomotive Coming Here On Tour

As part of its Summer 1985 Goodwill Tour, steam locomotive No. 1385, Chicago and North Western Railroad's historic 1907 train engine, will be journeying from the home of its current owner, Wisconsin's Mid-Continent Railway Museum to Highland Park. The 1385 will pull in July 20 at 4 p.m. and will be on public display until 4:20 p.m.

A true museum piece originally built by American Locomotive Co., Schenectady, N.Y., at a cost of $15,500, 1385 was one of 275 R-1 class locomotives used on the North Western.

These "10-wheelers" handled main line passenger and freight trains at speeds approaching 60 mph. When train sizes and weights increased, and larger, more powerful locomotives were developed, these R-1s were displaced into branch line, local and yard service. Here they remained until the end of steam operation in 1956.

Today, 1385 is one of only a few steam locomotives still operating in the United States.

"No industry is more closely associated with this country's growth than its railroads, and in an era calling for energy conservation, efficiency and productivity, railroads will be equally important to the nation's future."

The 1385 train is a whistle-stopping, show-stopping sign of the North Western's pride in its role in America's past and confidence in its future," said Chris Burger, C&NW's vice president of corporate communications.

An early-1900s restored business car and a baggage car with an historic photograph exhibit accompany 1385.

Business Car 440, built in 1930 as the Pullman car "Meadowlark" for the Southern Pacific, contains a dining room, galley, observation room and bedrooms. C&NW purchased the car from the Genessee & Wyoming in 1980. On tour, the 1385 train crew uses 440 as headquarters.

Baggage Car 8903, like 440, was owned by the North Western before both were donated to the Mid-Continent Museum. One half of the car is used as a tool room, the other half for a gift shop and exhibit area. The 1385 is free and open to the public.

Judge Calls It Quits

Judge Alphonse F. Witt, for 10 years an associate judge of the 19th Judicial Circuit, Lake County, has tendered his resignation from the bench.

Currently presiding judge of the chancery and probate division, Witt, 45, on Aug. 15 will join Schiller, DuCanto & Fleck, Chicago, the largest matrimonial law firm in the country.

Prior to heading chancery and probate, Witt was for three and a half years, presiding judge of the Lake County Divorce Div., during which time he formulated and, with the assistance of his fellow judges, instituted a court conciliation service for the county. In place for the last five years, this service has been highly praised for reducing the anxiety and hostility normally associated with custody and other domestic cases.

Witt joined the bench on July 15, 1976, following nine years as a Lake County assistant state's attorney, the last two of which he served as first assistant.

"After 19 years of public service, I now wish to pursue the private practice of law," says Witt, adding: "Schiller, DuCanto & Fleck is one of the finest domestic law firms in the country, and I eagerly accepted the opportunity to join it."

Witt's move to Schiller, DuCanto & Fleck follows the recent resignation of Philip S. Lieb, who left the firm in June to become an associate judge of the Circuit Court of Cook County.

"The addition of Judge Witt is part of our continuing policy to find the best available attorneys to represent our clients," reports Charles J. Fleck, principal and, himself, a former chief judge of the Domestic Relations Branch of Cook County.

"Judge Witt's litigation experience and his particular sensitivity to child custody issues will be a valuable asset," he adds.

Witt earned a bachelor of arts from Wabash College in Crawfordsville, Ind., and a juris doctor from the University of Illinois-Champaign.

He resides in Lake Bluff with his wife, Birgitta, and their two children.

Name Hofler Cornell Tradition Fellow

Deborah E. Hofler, daughter of John and Ellen Hofler of Ingleside, has been accepted for admission to Cornell University, Ithaca, N.Y. for the fall 1986 term.

Hofler has been selected as a Cornell Tradition Freshman Fellow. This honor and recognition is based upon a demonstrated commitment to work and initiative, scholarly achievement, school activity, and community involvement.

Cornell Tradition programs are endowed by the university alumni and friends to support Cornell students by supplying funds that reduce indebtedness and provide summer jobs that enhance their education.

Fellowships provide up to $2,500 annually to selected undergraduates. Since 1982 these programs have provided millions of dollars in fellowships to undergraduates and placed more than 1,500 Cornell students in summer jobs that complement their fields of study or career plans.

Jamil Graduates

Marine Corps Pvt. 1st Class Paul M. Jamil, son of Patsy Radley of 910 Central Park, Round Lake Beach, has graduated from the U.S. Air Force law enforcement specialist course at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas. Graduates of the course studied general law enforcement duties, tactics, weapons training, physical apprehension, and restraint and earned credits toward an associate degree in applied science through the Community College of the Air Force.

On Duty

Army Private Patrick J. Greene, son of Patricia Froney of Spring Grove and Joseph Greene of Lombard, has arrived for duty with the 502nd Infantry, West Germany.

Students Compete In National Event

Four students from the Lake County Area Vocational Center (LCAVC) traveled to Phoenix, Ariz. to compete in the Vocational Industrial Clubs of America (VICA) National Competition. The students were Dennis Burdick, small engine repair, and Brian Hurt, photography, both of Wauconda, Brian Thoren, plumbing, of Antioch, and Carl Calsen, carpentry, of Palatine.

In order to qualify for the national event, each contestant had to have been First place winner in his event in his state. All four of the LCAVC students were gold medal winners in the events at the Illinois VICA state competition held in Springfield in April. This is the sixth year in a row that LCAVC has sent contestants to National Competition.

Crime Stoppers To Sponsor Circus

Crime Stoppers is sponsoring a one-day appearance by the highly-acclaimed Carson and Barnes 5-Ring Circus at the Lake County Fairgrounds, Rte.s 45 and 120, Grayslake, on Friday, Aug. 15.

There will be two shows, one at 2 p.m. and one at 8 p.m. The Carson and Barnes Circus is the "Biggest Big Top on Earth" and features wild lions and tigers in the steel arena, somersaulting trapeze artists, rings of horses and ponies, 100 thrilling acts from 17 nations, plus, at no extra charge, a traveling zoo featuring 25 elephants.

Crime Stoppers, Inc., receives a larger portion of proceeds from advance sales and you save money, too, by purchasing your tickets before show day at: Crime Stoppers, Inc., by calling (312) 662-2225. Adult tickets are $5 and children's tickets, $3. At the time tickets are ordered, arrangements will be made for delivery.

One Out of Five Families is Repaying a Personal Loan... Most Are Paying Too Much!

Most finance companies are charging rates which are considerably higher than you can get locally at SkoFed Credit. That difference could mean thousands of extra dollars in interest charges.

SkoFed Credit is in the business of helping families when they need extra money to cover the following:

- home improvements
- college costs
- bill consolidations
- investment opportunities
- funding IRAs
- vacations
- any worthwhile purpose

Our personal loans are available from $1,200 based on collateral or credit rating. In most cases, your loan can be approved in as little as 24 to 48 hours. And you'll appreciate our rates.

If you need funds, call Lou or Diana Rosin at 674-9696 in Skokie or Jim Jensen at 223-7900 in Round Lake Beach for further details.

Marching In The Pet And Bike Parade

Announce Winners In Pet And Bike Parade

Over 55 children registered to participate in the Antioch News-Reporter's annual Pet and Bicycle Parade. In spite of sweltering heat, most of them showed up to show off their pets and bikes.

Entertainment at the event was provided by Sunni the Bird. The children enjoyed ice cream donated by Here's the Scoop and candy from Meta's Candies. The State Bank of Antioch joined with the News-Reporter to sponsor the annual event.

Kids of all ages showed up to compete and show how much fun those hallmarks of childhood, bicycles and pets, can be when coupled with a clever imagination.

Winners in the junior division (seven and under) included: six-year-old Brad Line, most patriotic bike; three-year-old Michael Dobosiewicz, most humorous bike; two-year-old Evangeline Kadera, most unusual bike; seven-year-old Adam Johnson, most unusual pet; three-year-old Kelly Line, best groomed pet; and seven-year-old Audra Miles, funniest pet.

Senior division winners (ages eight to 13) included: 10-year-old Kelly Innis, most patriotic bike; 10-year-old Mary Ellen Young, most humorous bike; eight-year-old Douglas Olsen, most unusual bike; 10-year-old Emily Johnson, most unusual pet; 11-year-old Lori Finn, best groomed pet; and 10-year-old Megan Clark, funniest pet.

All trophies were provided by Awards by Kayden.

Hess To Extend Warm Welcome

Lake County Clerk Linda Hess, candidate for re-election, will extend a warm hand to Lakeland Area residents at the upcoming Lake County Fair.

A full schedule will occupy the county's only Democratic incumbent to acquaint voters one-to-one with the importance of retaining two-party government in the courthouse.

Hess states, "I will be meeting the public every evening at the Democratic booth and I cordially invite all fair-goers to stop by. I will be available to answer any and all questions and I look forward to meeting many new people at this important summer event."

Other Democratic candidates who will be in attendance include: Sander Stagman, candidate for Lake County sheriff; Brad Berman, candidate for Lake County treasurer; and Pete Staben, candidate for circuit court judge.

Report Available For Review

The inspection report for the Lake County Juvenile Detention Facility is available for review in the Lake County clerk's office, advises County Clerk Linda Hess.

The Illinois Dept. of Corrections inspects these facilities annually and files the report with the county clerk's office, Hess explained.

The report may be reviewed in the office at the Courthouse, Room 101A, 18 N. County St., Waukegan.

Strollers May Be Harmful

The Lake County Health Dept. has received an advisory from the Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC) regarding the Century Products "Way To Go" Strollers.

Consumer letters to Century Products have indicated concern over the shoulder harness on the strollers. Some consumers indicated that children's necks may be dangerously entangled on the harness. This entanglement may occur when the activities of the child cannot be seen by the person pushing the stroller and could result in serious injury.

The affected strollers include model numbers: 11-140, 11-141, 11-143; Century "Way-to-Go II" model numbers 11-151, 11-152 and 11-155; Bilt-Rite "Fold-N-Go" stroller, model number 11-130; and Bilt-Rite "Way-to-Go II" strollers, model numbers 11-150, 11-152 and 1,000. Those strollers containing only a waist and crotch strap are not affected.

Century will provide a free replacement waist strap which can be installed on both, the Century and Bilt-Rite strollers needing repair.

Consumers who own affected models should call Century's Customer Service Dept. for the free replacement strap at (1-800) 222-9825. Until the replacement strap is installed, consumers using the stroller should be alert to their children's activities in the stroller to prevent entanglement while using the shoulder harness.

For further information call the CPSC's toll-free hotline at (1-800) 638-CPSC.

ON PEAK ALERT DAYS, IT PAYS TO USE LESS.

On Peak Alert days the extra-high demand for electricity tests our ability to provide all the power you need.

If we announce a Peak Alert, it means our thrifty coal and nuclear generators can't do the job alone. We have to use less efficient generators, too. And all of us pay that extra expense on our electric bills.

You can lower your energy bills this summer.

Every summer day, and especially when we've issued a Peak Alert, adopt some of these energy-saving, money-saving habits:

If you stay indoors:

- Set your air conditioner at 78° or higher.
- Keep your curtains closed so the sun's hot rays will stay outside.
- Wash your clothes and run your dishwasher on a cool day.
- Use all large appliances before 9 AM or after 10 PM.
- Open your refrigerator only when necessary.

Switch to outdoor activities:

- Head to the beach or find a refreshing pool.
- Dry your clothes outdoors.
- Cook on charcoal instead of the stove. Or don't cook at all—try a light sandwich or salads.

Ask for our free Waste Watcher's Guide:

It lists 101 things you can do to save energy every day. For your copy, write: Energy Information, P.O. Box 767, Chicago, IL 60690. And in the meantime, remember that when there's a Peak Alert, it pays to use less.

Congressional Inflation

Too bad that the efforts to control inflation haven't spilled over into the federal government where costs still are running rampant.

A study by the Tax Foundation found that Congress and other legislative branch agencies will cost taxpayers $1.9 billion, an increase of more than 150 percent over the 1976 level, according to the President's budget. The Consumer Price Index (CPI) has shown an increase of 92 percent during the same period.

Federal Government Legislative Branch Expenditures (In Millions)

Unit	1976	1986 (est.)	% Increase
Congress:
Senate	$123.9	$ 297.3	140%
House of Representatives	197.5	472.4	139
Joint Activities	52.7	152.3	189
Total	$374.1	$ 922.0	146
Legislative Agencies	401.2	1,023.7	155
Total	$775.3	$1,945.7	151%

An example of how Congressional costs are skyrocketing is the fact that estimated 1986 direct costs of Congress and of legislative agencies are 12 percent and 30 percent greater than the actual amounts spent in 1985. Obviously, members of Congress are unfettered about the problems of inflation as they go about their duties to make life "better" for us miserable taxpayers.

Funding's Shaky Foundation

Governor Thompson's recent veto of $100,000 from a grant to preserve wetlands in Wadsworth has to be causing some sleepless nights for local officials who are depending on Build Illinois funds to finance local projects.

Just a little over two months ago, Thompson scored a public relations coup in Lake County by personally coming out to announce his commitment of funding to the Chain O'Lakes and the Wadsworth wetlands. He did not appear personally to announce that he is not quite as committed to the wetlands as people may have been led to believe in April.

Several state legislators have frankly admitted that they have approved funding for more projects under the Build Illinois legislation than there is money to pay for.

Local supporters of the governor, while conceding that some approved programs will have to be cut, maintain that the same thing happened in the first year of the program and that it is no cause for alarm. The most crucial projects, they say, will be given top priority.

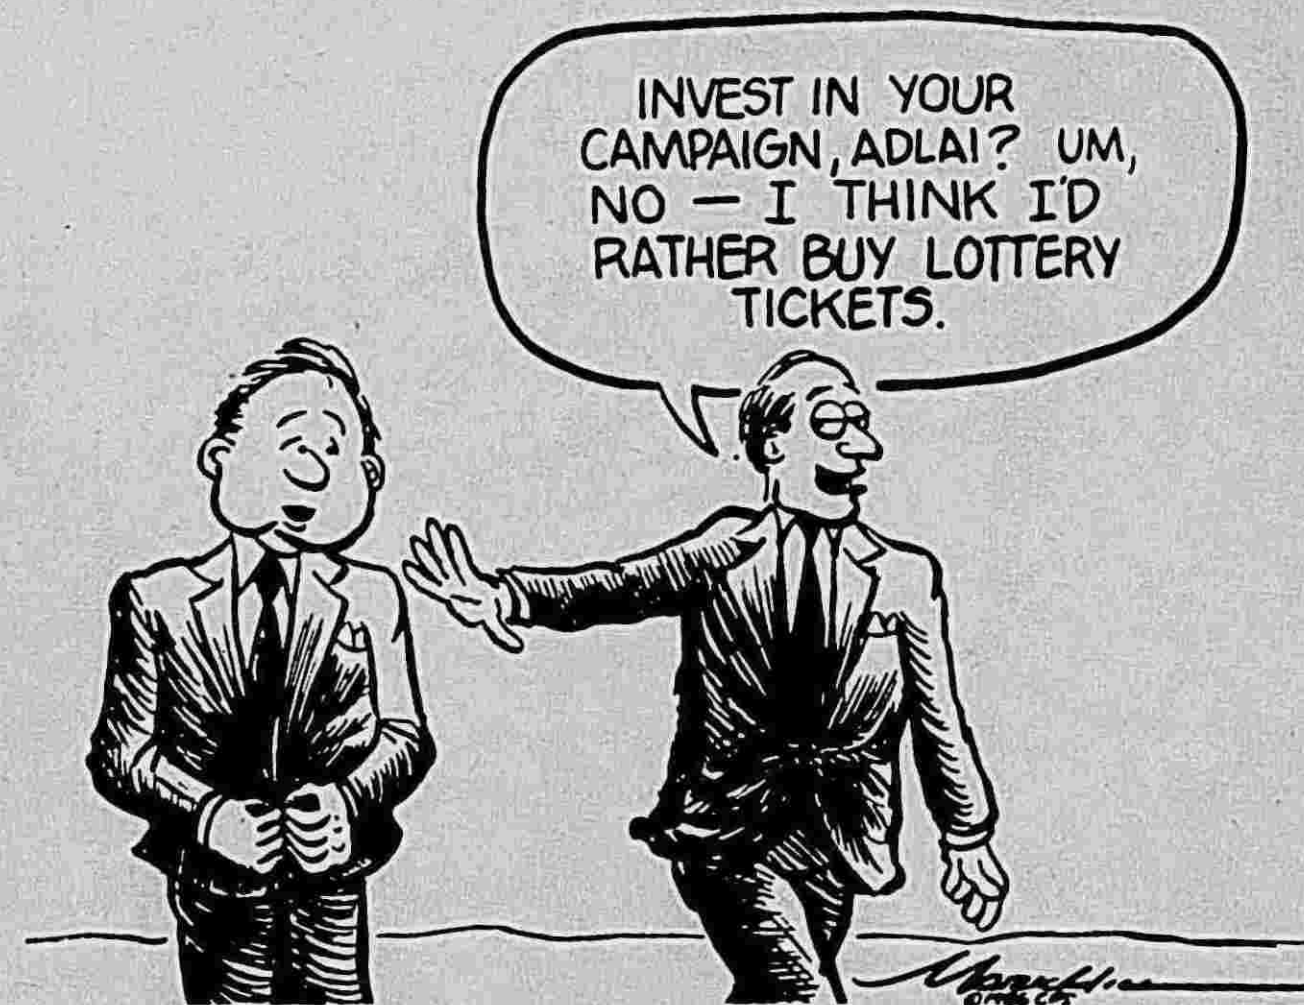

Frankly, we are alarmed. Four years ago, the governor insisted right up until election day that the state's finances were peachy-keen. Only after he was safely elected to a third term did he discover, to his horror, that things were not quite as keen as he had been telling us.

For the last year, the Build Illinois program has been a public relations bonanza for the governor and his administration, in particular, and for incumbent legislators, in general.

Supporters of Thompson say that the program must be sound because, after all, Adlai Stevenson's chances of winning the election are roughly equivalent to the Cubs chance of winning their division this year. Why go through a charade when it is obviously unnecessary, they ask.

We remain unconvinced. The governor is a cautious man. He may well figure that if Mark Fairchild could get elected, then so could Adlai Stevenson.

In the meantime, local officials will just have to hope that the check really is in the mail.

Letters To The Editor:

Radium Danger

Editor:

There is a killer in Round Lake homes! Don't bother calling the police department though, because the killer has already knifed its way into your body—through your morning coffee, the ice cubes cooling off that tall soda pop, and in that kettle of homemade soup simmering on the stove.

The killer, of course, is the Round Lake water system. The Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) declares that our water system contains about twice the level of radium in our drinking water than they consider safe.

While various groups squabble over the actual and potential real danger this has for those who ingest it, we're fooling ourselves if we think the situation isn't serious to our future health. My wife and I have lost beloved family members to cancer and the thought that drinking our own tap water is increasing our risks (and worse yet, our 11-month-old's) of getting cancer, is terrifying.

As citizens, we must speak up and not let business/economic concerns take priority over our very lives. Talk to your family doctors and find out how serious radium ingestion is to your health, contact the Lake County Dept. of Health to check what the radium levels are in our water wells, make your feelings known to local politicians.

Your voice or letter will be heard. Citizens cannot be ignored because the high radium levels in our water can be vital to the future financial success of the area. Think of the real estate values should this problem remain.

When my wife and I moved into this community last June, we saw it as our chance to attain a small chunk of the American dream. With crime rates rising and cockroaches invading our apartment building (in a different suburb) we packed our bags, proud to have our first child and first home in the peace and quiet of Round Lake Beach. Had we known of this killer, we'd have moved elsewhere. Should this problem continue, we would seriously consider moving out of the area. We don't want to leave, but the radium problem sickens us and it should sicken you. Stand up and make your feelings known—our lives are potentially at stake!

Questions Prominence

Editor:

I have been a Warren Township resident practically all my life and a registered Republican for over 13 years. I am currently Warren Township Republican Precinct Committeeman Chairman and have been for the past three years. I have been active in Warren Township Republican politics for over 20 years, and think I know the issues and the players.

Your paper the last few weeks keeps on trying to say that Gretchen Schalk is a prominent Republican from Warren Township supporting the Democratic County Clerk. I believe she is supporting her, but I take exception to the statement that she is a Republican.

Political columnist John Steinke stated, "Gretchen has supported Democrats frequently" and "She supported County Democratic candidates such as Phyllis Lucas and Mike Duffy." With statements like this, I do not believe she is a loyal Republican and should not be used as an example of a Warren Township Republican.

Webster's Dictionary defines the word "prominent" as "widely and favorably known." Fortunately, prior to two years ago, no one knew who this lady was, and even today, she would not be recognized by 95% of the Warren Township residents. The person you and your paper keep referring to as a prominent Republican from Warren could not even win the support of her friends and neighbors in the primary last March for Republican Precinct Committeeman in her own precinct.

I hope in the future your paper will print the news as it is, not the way you want it to be. I also hope you will quit taking cheap political shots at our fine Republican candidates such as Mickey Babcox for Sheriff and Donna-Mae Litwiler for County Clerk. I ask for no special favors or privileges, but only that you report the news and not use the paper for your own personal grudges and vindictiveness.

Warren Township Republican Chairman

John Bieschke feels that he has found his niche in life. He's going to dedicate himself to making people, especially children, laugh and be happy.

Bieschke is known professionally as "Sunni the Bird." He performs in a chicken costume and does a dance known as the "bird dance" or the "chicken dance." The Sunni outfit was designed and manufactured by a theatrical costume company.

"I know my call is to make people laugh. I love performing for children. They relate instantly to Sunni. It's a great feeling when you can make someone happy," exclaimed the Round Lake resident whose business background includes employment in the credit and collections field, and as a department manager for a temporary help concern.

Bieschke conceived the chicken character several years ago at an Octoberfest. He researched the "bird dance" or the "chicken dance" and found it to be a traditional European dance. Bieschke's background as a performer includes leadership of a singing group that did guitar masses and appeared at weddings. The group originated at Our Lady of Victory, a northwest side Catholic parish in Chicago where Bieschke grew up.

Becoming a professional entertainer was a natural outgrowth of his interest in bringing joy and pleasure to a society where fun and laughter are difficult to come by, Bieschke avowed.

Bieschke or Sunni is at his best freelancing at occasions like the annual Polish Festival in Milwaukee and the Jerry Lewis Telethon, two engagements he has booked in the coming weeks.

Like most entertainers, Bieschke always is "on." During a recent outdoor performance at which the mercury rose into the 90's, Bieschke cracked, as he was climbing into his Sunni the Bird outfit, "This could turn out to be baked chicken today."

OUT OF RACE—Mitch Kotlarz reportedly has had second thoughts and will pull out of the race as a Democratic candidate for Dist. 4 County Board representative. This leaves incumbent Norman Geary and newcomer Charlotte Kiesgen, both Republicans, running unopposed.

Kotlarz, a member of the Lake Villa town board, reportedly became disenchanted when promised financial aid and other support was not forthcoming. Sounds like a familiar refrain. Dist. 4 includes Antioch, Lake Villa, Avon and Grant townships.

ONE MAN'S FAMILY—Invitations are in the mail so the countdown has begun for Jill's Aug. 22 date. Right now she's at the stage of wondering whether she can survive the big event, what with the myriad of details involved in orchestrating a modern wedding. So are mom and pop—and the rest of the family.

Avocado Uses Are Many From Soup To Dessert

You could eat an all-avocado meal—from soup to dessert—if you desired. I know some people who are so crazy about the buttery-flavored fruit that they almost do.

The avocado stands tallest, I believe, during the first three courses. Oh, how I love baby shrimp doused in Thousand Island Dressing sitting in half an avocado.

Here are three of my all-time favorite avocado recipes:

Avocado Soup

4 cups cut-up avocados

Pilot Light

GREG MELIKOV

2 garlic cloves, minced
1 teaspoon minced onion
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon each, white pepper, chili powder, coriander

1 cup heavy cream
2 cups chicken broth
2 tablespoons lime juice
In blender, combine all ingredients except 1/2 cup cream, chicken broth and lime juice; blend until smooth. Add rest of cream; blend just to mix. In large saucepan, bring broth to boil; stir in avocado mixture and lime juice. Reduce heat to medium and cook several minutes. Serve hot or let cool. Pour into container, tightly cover and chill until using. Serves four.

1 medium tomato, peeled, seeded and diced
4 tablespoons diced onion
1 teaspoon diced green chilies
Corn or tortilla chips
Mash avocado; mash in cream cheese and stir in lime juice and salt. Stir in tomato, onion and chilies. Stir until smooth and chill. Yields two cups. Serve with chips.

Avocado Butter

1 small avocado, peeled
Juice of 1/2 lemon
1 pound sweet butter, softened
In blender, puree avocado. Mix with lemon juice, blend with butter, chape and chill. Yields two cups. Spread on toast, corn on the cob, and grilled meat, fish or fowl.

Guacamole

1 large avocado, peeled and cubed
1 ounce cream cheese, softened
1 tablespoon lime juice
1/2 teaspoon salt

Famous Chef Cuisine

Plans for Victory Memorial Hospital's sixth annual Famous Chef Cuisine are underway. The event will be held Sunday, Sept. 14 at the Illinois Beach Resort and Conference Center in Zion and will feature gourmet specialties from more than 35 area restaurants. Proceeds benefit Victory's Chemical Dependency Unit. Planning the event are, from left, Sara Ofenloch, benefit chairperson; Barbara Donaldson, director of volunteers, and Bev Petropoulos of the planning committee. Call (312) 360-4015 for ticket information.

Women Attend Convention

Randi Baltz, Jackie Bonovitz, Janis McKoski and Cheryl Epner of the Chain-Of-Lakes Branch of the Illinois Division of the American Assn. of University of Women attended the annual regional convention at the Hyatt Regency, Schaumburg.

The main thrust of the convention centered on the spear-heading by AAUW of the Volunteer Leadership Training (VOLT) program. Under this grant funded project, volunteer members of AAUW would be trained in the four precepts of VOLT: Organization/Management; Group Dynamics; Communications; and Leadership Styles.

In turn, the members would then train leaders of the communities in which they work. More on this free service to the communities will be announced as the program is further developed.

Mary Grete, president of the AAUW Education Foundation, announced that in addition to the over 1 million dollars in fellowship awards and grants given in 1986, the association has also formally established the "Judith Resnick Endowment Fund." AAUW is the only organization to sponsor such a fund in honor of the astronaut who died as a result of the Challenger disaster in January of 1986. Resnick, a member of AAUW, was granted a fellowship in order to complete her doctoral work.

A plaque in her honor will be presented by AAUW at the Johnson Space Center in Houston.

The convention also held several workshops dealing with status of pay equity, displaced homemakers and health.

The American Assn. of University Women represents approximately 6,700 women statewide and promotes equity for women, education and self-development over the life span, and positive societal change.

Slate Forum

At some time in their lives, half of all women will experience stress incontinence. When they exercise, run, cough, sneeze or laugh, they may pass urine involuntarily. Recognizing that women are often reluctant to talk about the subject, Victory Memorial Hospital's Women's Health Connection is sponsoring a program on the topic to help women understand the causes of this problem and possible solutions.

The program, which is free of charge, is scheduled for 8 to 11:30 a.m. on Saturday, Aug. 9, at the hospital, located at 1324 North Sheridan Rd. Waukegan. Breakfast will be served at 8 a.m. and will be followed by the presentations. Advance registration would be appreciated by calling (312) 360-4148.

Dulce Milanes, M.D., Sharon Marquard, clinical specialist in gerontology, and Beth Rogers, R.N., enterostomal therapist, will be the speakers.

They will explain why incontinence is a major health issue in this country. The speakers will explain the causes of incontinence, the types of incontinence and conditions which are correctable by surgery, medication, special exercises and changes in diet.

The greater the number of children a woman has and the older she gets, the greater her chances are of experiencing stress incontinence.

As the muscles and ligaments that support the bladder weaken, they cannot provide support for the urinary sphincter and the result is leakage.

Other causes may be obesity, pelvic injury or unhealthy bladder practices. Occasional leakage may result from bladder infection, side effects of medication, emotional factors and common beverages which act as diuretics.

The problem is such an embarrassment for women that they do not discuss it—often even with their physicians.

This breakfast/forum is designed to offer women the information which may help them address the problem with greater knowledge and ease.

Combined Club Dance

All singles are invited to a Combined Club Singles Dance with live music at 8:30 p.m., Saturday, Aug. 2, at the Holiday Inn O'Hare Kennedy, 5400 N. River Rd., Rosemont. The dance is co-sponsored by the Northwest Singles Association, Singles & Company, and Young Suburban Singles. Admission is $6 for non-members; $5 for members. For more information call (312) 725-3300.

Leash Law Protects Pets As Well As People

by CHARLENE WHITNEY

It's the time of year when so many pet owners put their dogs out to walk themselves. The law says no dog in the village is allowed to run loose. You must tie up your dog or put him in a fenced yard that he can't get out of. This may sound hard to many people, but have you asked yourself why this law exists? It's not only to protect people, but also pets.

While your pet is loose on their dog on a leash and are walking down the street. Your loose pet may start fighting with the leashed pet. That puts the owner right in the middle of it and he can get hurt as well.

Pets often go to school yards because children are there. Kids get excited seeing the pet, and some kids may even get rough. Your pet may bite one of them and then there is real trouble.

By the way, should you get a bite by a dog or cat, be sure to talk to anyone who might have seen it. Get their names and addresses in case it goes to court. Note the color, size and breed of the animal so that you can report it right away. Try to find out where the dog or cat lives. The wound should be cleaned right away with soap and water.

The Lake County Animal Shelter gets many biters and several don't have their shots up-to-date for rabies.

It hasn't always been that way—that rabies was a big problem with dogs, cats and other animals. A human can get rabies from an animal that has it by a simple scratch or a bite. This disease is a painful killer and can be just as much so for humans.

With the vaccine for rabies, there shouldn't be any worry of the disease. Pets can and should be vaccinated for rabies. However, people don't all do this, and rabies is on the rise in many areas. Dogs, pups, cats, kittens—all need the protection, whether they live in the house or outdoors. The law requires that they all be vaccinated.

By the way, I am told that heartworm in dogs is also on the rise. There is no law that says to have your pet checked. However, for those who love their dogs, it would be wise to have them checked out at your vet's. Heartworms come from the common mosquito and they breed where there is plenty of water. So you may wish to take care and help your dog stay healthy. Heartworm can and does kill animals.

With all these things in mind and by taking the right steps, it should be a truly nice summer for everyone.

the streets, he can come across many dangers. He can get hit by a car, get into a bad fight with other animals or even become lost. He could be taken by thieves who sell pets to research labs, used for dog fights, or even skinned for human clothing.

Your pet can get into trouble in so many ways while he runs the streets. He might chase a child and other people and even form into a pack with other animals. Even the nicest dog will join in a pack and become mean.

The pets tear up many gardens, make messes in people's yards and tear up garbage bags. He could find bad food such as bad meat in the garbage and become ill.

Even people who are following the law can run into a big problem if they have

Post-Game Ceremony

Team members of the Old Grand Bank and The Blasters give each other the traditional post-game greetings after the championship game of a 12-inch women's softball tournament at Viking Park in Gurnee. The Blasters won the title with a 2-1 win. — Photo by Steve Peterson.

Former Trainer Joins Staff

Athletic trainer Jerry Carter has joined Good Shepherd Hospital, Barrington, as the director of its sports medicine program.

Carter comes to Good Shepherd from the Chicago Sting. Carter had been the trainer for that professional soccer team since 1980.

"Choosing to leave the Sting was a difficult decision, but the potential of the sports medicine program at Good Shepherd was just too promising. Also, now I'll be able to spend much more time with my family than I was able to in pro ball," Carter said.

Furlan Slates Tournaments

Dug Out Park in Trevor, Wis. has set the dates for volleyball and softball tournaments.

On July 26 and 27 will be the Mid-Summer 12-inch Tournament for non-classic teams. Entry fee is $80. On the same weekend is a co-ed volleyball tournament for guys and gals. The entry is $25 for this double elimination tourney.

Then on Aug. 2 and 3 is the August Women's 12-inch Tournament for teams class "C" and below and has an entry fee of $80. On this same weekend will be a men's volleyball tournament with a $25 entry fee.

Next on Aug. 9 and 10 is the Nike-DeBeer Men's 12-inch Tournament. There will be Nike shoes awarded to the 1st place team.

In the other tournaments there will be championship t-shirts and also trophies for each tournament.

For more information please call Tom Furlan at (414) 862-9936 or (312) 395-5788. The park is located on Hwy. 83, two miles north of the Illinois/Wisconsin state line.

Vikings Set Registration

Registration for Antioch Viking youth football is slated to begin Friday evenings from 6 to 9 p.m., and Saturday mornings from 9 a.m. to noon, in Antioch, at the Scout House on Main St., next to the Antioch Public Library.

Registration dates are July 25, 26, Aug. 1, 2 and 8. Registration will also be held Saturday, Aug. 9, from noon to 3 p.m. in the East parking lot of the Antioch Community High School.

Registration is open to boys entering 5th through 8th grades during the fall semester and must be under 15 years of age as of Sept. 1, 1986. The registration fee is $35 per boy and $30 per additional boy per family, and is expected to be paid at time of registration.

At registration each new boy to enter the Vikings is asked to produce a birth certificate, baptismal, etc., which will be kept on permanent file.

Cheerleader registration is also being held. Girls entering 5th through 8th grades may also register at the times noted above. The registration fee for cheerleaders is $15 per girl.

Acosta Retains Lead

Dennis Korjenek became an automatic qualifier for the Coca Cola-Lakeland Publishers tennis series championship round by winning the series' title at Zion Park Dist.

The championship put Korjenek into third place in overall standings.

The next stop for the series is at the Lindenhurst Recreation Dept. July 26-27. The championship tournament will be played at the Waukegan Park Dist. Aug. 22-24.

Through three events, Fred Acosta remains the player to beat with seven points. Leonard Rosenberg, the Round Lake champion, is second with five points.

Acosta won at Gurnee.

Stu Short, Dennis Daly and Dave Buksa have three points apiece.

Tied with two points are Joseph Sanchez, Jim Devasquez and Dave Cary.

Twelve players have one point.

IRS Tackles Problem

Taxpayers with an "unresolved" federal tax problem can get help from a special Internal Revenue Service office. It is called the Problem Resolution Program (PRP) office and it gives personal attention to taxpayers whose previous contacts through normal IRS channels have not helped.

The most common complaints brought to Problem Resolution are about delayed refunds. Sometimes these are caused by incorrect or duplicated social security numbers or by taxpayers who change their names and do not inform the Social Security Administration. Taxpayers who move after filing a return without providing a forwarding address may also have their refunds delayed.

The IRS stressed that PRP is not a substitute for normal IRS channels and cannot be used to appeal technical decisions in an examination. The PRP office usually takes complaints only after there has been at least one unsuccessful contact with the IRS.

Taxpayers can reach the PRP office by calling the IRS number listed in their phonebook and asking for Problem Resolution.

Banks Announce Affiliation Agreement

Larry L. McGregor, chairman of The Premier Banks, and Daniel R. Smith, chairman of First of America Bank Corporation, Kalamazoo, Mich., have announced that a definitive agreement of affiliation has been signed by Premier's holding company board of directors.

Under the terms of the agreement, The Premier Banks would merge into First of America and become First of America's initial affiliation in Illinois.

Premier has combined assets of $506 million and has six subsidiary banks serving Lake and northern Cook counties in the greater Chicago market. Its subsidiaries are the $108 Million Asset Libertyville National Bank; the $110 Million Asset Golf Mill State Bank, Niles; the $82 Million Asset Grayslake National Bank; the $73 Million Asset First National Bank of Mundelein; the $21 Million Asset Premier Bank of Vernon Hills; and the $112 Million Asset Zion State Bank and Trust Company, which was just acquired by Premier in May, 1986. The six banks have a total of 16 offices.

In making the announcement, Premier Chairman McGregor said, "We are excited about the opportunities this merger will provide us. First of America shares our philosophy of working with and in our communities. This affiliation will enable us to not only serve our existing markets more fully, but the enter new markets as well."

First of America Chairman Smith said, "We are extremely pleased at the prospect of entering the prosperous and growing Chicago suburban market. It is especially gratifying that The Premier Banks are choosing to affiliate with us. They have an outstanding management team, their banks earn well and their offices are located in good growth areas." Smith added that "Premier has had a successful track record in affiliating their banks and we look forward to their assisting us as we further expand First of America in Illinois."

First of America has agreed to pay Premier $190 per share in a combination of up to 49 percent in cash and 51 percent in a 9 percent Convertible Preferred Stock for each of Premier's 400,000 outstanding shares. The $76 million merger agreement is subject to Illinois, Michigan and federal regulatory authorities.

First of America Bank Corporation was Michigan's first multi-bank holding company when it was founded by its lead bank, First of America Bank-Michigan, N.A., in 1971. Today, the company has over $5.3 billion in assets with 32 affiliate banks and 255 offices in Michigan's Upper and Lower Peninsulas. First of America also has pending the acquisition of NewCentury Bank Corporation, Bay City, Mich., a $1.1 billion asset bank holding company with eight community banks in the mid-Michigan area.

In April, First of America announced its first interstate expansion into Indiana, with agreements of affiliation with the $150 million asset First National Bank and Trust Company of La Porte, Ind. and with the $265 million asset First Bank and Trust of Indianapolis. With pending affiliations including Premier, First of America will have assets of $7.5 billion in Michigan, Indiana and Illinois, with 48 affiliate banks and 350 offices.

New Gurnee Store

Lake County Office Equipment's new store in Gurnee features a complete selection of everything for the office from office supplies and executive gifts to electronic business machines and office systems. The new store was designed to make shoppers and browsers comfortable.

Store Opens Branch

Lake County Office Equipment of Waukegan has expanded its operations by opening a second store in Gurnee.

The new store is located at 3607 Grand Avenue.

It features a complete range of office supplies, office systems, and electronic business machines and executive gifts.

"We've chosen this second spot because we wanted to offer our customers who are situated outside Waukegan a more convenient location for their business shopping," says Wesley Trombino, the firm's sales manager. The new store is halfway between Rte. 41-Skokie Highway and Green Bay Rd., Rte. 131.

Trombino reports that the new store's striking interior was designed to give customers a relaxed, comfortable place to browse and shop, while reflecting Lake County Office Equipment's reputation as a trendsetter in the office equipment industry.

He explains, "We set out to create the most up-to-date office equipment showroom between Chicago and Milwaukee. We wanted an attractive area where, in seconds, customers can find the supplies, equipment or gifts they're looking for."

Lake County Office Equipment has deep roots in the area. The firm was begun in 1945 on a budget of $1500 by Trombino's grandfather Robert Lee Trombino, Sr. That first location was in a storefront on Washington St.

Later, the business moved to 1825 Glen Flora Ave. In 1972, operations were moved to 1428 Glen Flora, where the firm's headquarters remain.

"In the early days, our company sold manual typewriters. Then, it was one of the first to go with electric models. Now we're selling all sorts of electronic business machines," says Trombino.

"All along, a major reason for the success of Lake County Office Equipment has been this enthusiasm for carrying the newest and best business products anywhere," he added.

His father, Robert Jr., is president and his uncle, James, is chairman of the board.

Lake County Office Equipment sells a full range of office supplies, furniture and electronic business machines including copiers, typewriters, word processing units, electronic calculators and cash registers. The firm is an authorized dealer and supplier for IBM, Brother and Royal typewriters, Casio calculators and cash registers and AB Dick copiers for low- and high-volume users.

Rentals and leasing are available at both locations. The new Gurnee store has a large section featuring executive gifts with costs ranging from $5 to $100. Fine pens and pencils, clocks, business card holders, carvings and figurines, and numerous leather briefcases are all in stock.

For more information about Lake County Office Equipment phone at (312) 662-6100.

MEET THE NEW DOCTOR IN TOWN!

Hi, I'm
Dr. Jeffrey K. Bergin, D.C.

PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATIONS

Did you know that becoming certified as a chiropractic physician requires a minimum of six years of highly specialized college training?

Today's Doctor of Chiropractic must complete 4,485 hours of classroom instruction and pass a rigid chiropractic board examination before earning a license. In most states, continuing educational seminars must be completed for annual license renewal.

PERSONAL BACKGROUND

In addition, I have completed courses in the care and treatment of scoliosis, sports injuries, low back and orthopedic studies; and hold a bachelor of arts degree from Lakeland College in Sheboygan, Wisconsin; and the doctor of chiropractic degree from Logan College of Chiropractic. Postgraduate courses include a one year radiology (X-Ray) course and orthopedic diplomate certifying coursework. While in college, I received Dean's List Honors and graduated in 1982. I have associated with two large chiropractic clinics prior to my coming to this area.

Additionally, I devote 3 days every month to attend advanced orthopedic course work in Chicago and Atlanta to stay current on the latest chiropractic advances.

This is the kind of training and professionalism I offer you. If you have hesitated visiting a chiropractor, perhaps you didn't know that chiropractors go to such great lengths to continue their education and provide you with the latest techniques and most qualified service. So, you see, what you don't know, can't help you. Call me today and let me help you.

Did you know that symptoms most commonly treated by chiropractors are:

Back Pain	Headaches	Painful Joints
Neck Pain	Arthritis	Shoulder Pain
Stiffness	Bursitis	Arm/Leg Pain
Numbness	Hip Pain	Cold Hands/Feet

To introduce you to the healing world of chiropractic, please accept my special offer:

COMPLIMENTARY SPINAL EXAMINATION July & August

Complimentary Complimentary

This examination normally costs $35.00 or more. It will include an orthopedic test, a neurological test, a blood pressure test, a spinal alignment check, an examination for restricted or excess motion in the spine, a muscle strengthness test, and a private consultation to discuss the results.

Board Reelects Officers

The Lake County Housing Authority Board of Commissioners has reelected Chairman J.C. Copeland, and Vice Chairman Karl Edwards, for additional one year terms. Copeland, a Waukegan resident, has served on the board for eight years including four as vice chairman and two as chairman. Edwards is in his fifth year of service. He resides in rural Wadsworth and is a local businessman.

Contributes $100,000

Waste Management, Inc., parent company of HOD Disposal Services, has made a major contribution of $100,000 to the restoration and maintenance of the Statue of Liberty, according to Harry Habets, general manager of HOD. "This is another example of our company's commitment to supporting worthwhile projects of broad national and community interest," Habets said, noting the company's involvement in the national Keep America Beautiful campaign in April. Waste Management, Inc., is an international waste services company with operations in the U.S., Canada, and four countries overseas.

Make Sure Package Tour Really Is A Bargain

Each year, thousands of Americans try to save a buck by taking group tours, package trips and charter flights.

All travel packages are not necessarily tours. A "package" only means that you have purchased a combination of transportation, accommodations and meals, usually at a much lower price than if purchased individually.

A "tour," on the other hand, usually has an escort who shows you around and takes care of all arrangements on the trip.

Some package tours save the cash-short traveler a substantial amount of money. Others provide knowledgeable guides, lectures on local culture and a way to meet other travelers.

"But sometimes, these bargain-travel deals turn your long-awaited dream vacation into a nightmare," said Glen Stewart, president of Gray's Travel in Northbrook.

Take the case of the cash-short newlyweds from Chicago who purchased a package honeymoon tour to Cairo, Egypt, through a second-rate tour operator.

Instead of a once-in-a-lifetime vacation down the Nile River, the package tour turned out to be one headache after another—lost luggage, itinerary changes and third-rate hotels.

The promised "first-class accommodations" turned out to be dumpy hotels not fit for a camel, said the disgruntled groom.

Instead of a promised "full day" at the Great Pyramids, lost luggage caused the bride and groom's visit to be cut to an hour—barely enough time to take snapshots and buy cheap souvenirs.

And, the part-time tour operator, who puts together groups once or twice a year for travel abroad, spent more time enjoying his vacation than making the couple's honeymoon trip a memorable one.

"Often, there's more smoke than professionalism in the travel agent business," said a veteran world traveler. "Every well-to-do executive's wife is in the business for fun, free tours and fast bucks."

Gray's Travel gave the following advice for novice travelers on how to take hassle-free tours:

-GROUP BUYING POWER - Tours and packages give the average traveler the advantage of group buying power. Reliable travel agents guarantee an airline or a hotel that they will have a certain number of patrons, so the merchant is willing to lower the price.

Tour operators negotiate for hundreds of hotel rooms during a tour season, and thus have leverage to get a much better deal than you could by yourself.

-CHARTER FLIGHTS - Seats are rented on a plane and as many as possible are filled, thus making the fare lower for them all. Charters run the gamut, from the poorly arranged scam that strands you in New Delhi with no hotel reservations and no flight home, to the well-planned, flawlessly executed charter flights taken by millions each year.

-FINDING HONEST TOUR OPERATORS - The difference between a good and a bad charter, package trip or tour is usually the competence and honesty of the tour operator, who rents space from the airlines and arranges the trip.

-CHECKING OUT THE OPERATOR - Always check out the tour operator with the Better Business Bureau and consumer protection agency in the city or state where the operator is based. Also contact the U.S.

Dept. of Transportation's Office of Consumer Complaint Resolution in Washington, D.C. at (202) 755-2220.

Ask if the operator is a member of the U.S. Tour Operators Assn. Members are required to participate in the group's consumer protection fund and to carry trip cancellation insurance.

-HIRE A GOOD TRAVEL AGENT - The best protection against unscrupulous or disorganized tour operators is to hire a knowledgeable and experienced travel agent.

Ask the agent the following questions: How long has the agency dealt with the operator? Are they satisfied with the work done? What can the charter vacationer expect—a luxury vacation, or a no-frills trip? How different is the cost of the charter from booking regular tickets for the same trip?

Veteran travel agents also should know: What happens if your return flight is cancelled? Are there penalties if you cancel shortly before departure? What protection do you have against changes in hotels or itinerary? If you have problems, your travel agent is your first ally—agents depend on repeat business.

If you have a problem with a travel agent, contact the American Society of Travel Agents in Washington, D.C., at (202) 965-7520.

-AVOIDING LOST LUGGAGE - More than four million pieces of luggage are lost, damaged, delayed or otherwise misdirected by U.S. airlines each year. The easiest way to avoid trouble is to use only carry-on baggage. If you do check your baggage, here are some tips to avoid trouble:

1. Watch the agent or skycap ticketing your luggage. Make sure the tag they attach is for the same destination as yours.

2. Use identification tags with your name, address and telephone number on the outside and inside of your luggage.

3. Mark your luggage distinctively so you can spot it easily on the baggage carousel or in the hands of a thief.

4. Never pack valuables. Leave them at home, or carry them with you. Pack your glasses, keys, medicines and important papers in your carry-on baggage.

5. Claim your baggage right away. Make those phone calls after you pick up your luggage.

6. Hang on to your baggage claim stubs. In case of loss or damage, you'll need them to establish your claim.

7. If your luggage is lost, file a claim as soon as possible. U.S. carriers give you 45 days to file after discovering the loss. Keep all supporting documentation, such as your ticket, baggage claim sub and lost baggage claim form.

Korea: Both Political And Military Fiasco

by JOHN STEINKE

It is 36 years after a devastating but now almost-forgotten Korean War. The Korean Peninsula remains dangerously divided between the Communist North and a pro-West South. There are more than a million men on both sides still armed and prepared for a renewal of hostilities. The 151-mile-truce line left the belligerent armies roughly in the same positions that they had occupied when the war began.

Steinke On Politics

Once upon a time, there was a single Korea. It was often called "The Land of the Morning Calm." Korea was occupied by Japan as a result of the Russo-Japanese War (1904-5). The country was annexed by Japan in 1910. The Allies promised Korea independence during World War II. The Korean peninsula was divided along the 38th parallel in 1945. There were two occupational zones: the Russian in the north and the American in the south. The two "republics" prevented cooperation between the two superpowers.

The Korean War was precipitated when 200,000 Communist North Korean troops rolled across the 38th parallel into South Korea on June 25, 1950. Within a week after the invasion, the Soviet-equipped North Korean army had crushed the weak ill-supplied forces of South Korea. Seoul, the South Korean capital, fell in five days. President Harry S. Truman committed the United States to a land war in Korea, on a peninsula the size of Utah. Actually, the Korean conflict wasn't ever technically a war. Congress never declared it one. It was often called "a police action."

Meanwhile, Washington took the matter to the United Nations. The non-communist army that fought in Korea under U.S. generalship did become a more or less authentic U.N. one. The sixteen United Nations allies were a minuscule force compared to their American and South Korean comrades. Still, the presence of a 50-man contingent from Luxembourg was a symbol of determination to stop aggression. It seemed to augur well for the future of international amity that a Greek and Turkish outfit could fight practically flank-to-flank without turning on one another.

By early August 1950, U.S. and other United Nations forces were pouring into the Pusan perimeter at the top of the peninsula about 100 miles from Japan. On Sept. 15, 1950, General Douglas MacArthur pulled off a brilliant tactical coup with an end-run amphibious landing at Inchon, in South Korea. He sent the 1st Marine Division ashore in Inchon, isolating many North Korean units and recapturing Seoul ten days later. After three-and-a-half months of fighting, the North Koreans had been pushed back across the 38th parallel.

The UN sanctioned the conquest of North Korea. Then MacArthur marched up to the Yalu River, which separates North Korea from Communist China. The General divided his forces into two prongs that he hoped would meet at the Manchurian border, thereby enveloping North Korea. He had been warned that if he did that the Chinese would probably intervene en masse. But MacArthur reassured President Truman at Wake Island on Oct. 15, 1950, that the Chinese would stay out of the war. He promised his men that they would be home by Christmas.

On Nov. 24, 1950, U.N. forces approached the Yalu River. But already 200,000 Chinese "volunteers" had infiltrated North Korea, either undetected by U.S. intelligence or ignored by General MacArthur. A bitter cold winter swept across the bleak mountains and frozen hills of North Korea. The Chinese troops attacked the divided U.N. units on November 26. With the chilling sound of bugles and whistles and the brazen clang of cymbals, the Chinese "hordes" conducted "human wave" assaults against the U.N. lines. Then began what the GIs called "the big bug-out." It was a three-week-300 mile retreat through the snow and the enemy.

Following bitter fighting, the U.N. soldiers reestablished the battle lines along the 38th parallel. Kaesong, a site in North Korea, was where the armistice talks started in 1951. Thousands of soldiers on opposing sides were killed during the two years of negotiations. During those two years of talking, Americans continued to die at such remote places as "Pork Chop Hill," "Old Baldy," and "Heartbreak Ridge." It took 255 meetings over two years and 17 days to reach the agreement.

A truce was hammered out in months of negotiations at the village of Panmoujon. On July 27, 1953, the armistice was signed by U.S. and North Korean military representatives in a wordless 10-minute ceremony in a hastily constructed building north of Panmoujon. The agreement left both North and South Korea prostrate and poverty-stricken. Their economies were ruined and their cities and villages were leveled or battered by the war. The savage struggle that raged up and down the Korean peninsula left as many as four million people dead or wounded.

This "police action" cost 54,246 American lives and 103,284 wounded. The World Almanac states that 5,764,143 American servicemen and women served in the military during the Korean War. There was disagreement among our military strategists on the nature of the conflict. General Omar Bradley, who was chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff at the time, said that the Korean business was "the wrong war, at the wrong place, at the wrong time and with the wrong enemy." General Douglas MacArthur stated, "There is no substitute for victory."

In addition to serving clients directly, the Volunteer Lawyers Program is preparing a series of television tapes entitled "Your Access to the Law."

Lawyers Program Finishes

The Volunteer Lawyers Program of the Lake County Bar Assn. has just finished its second year of a very successful operation.

Over 90 clients were served and 70 volunteer attorneys participated in various phases of the program. In addition, financial support was received from 30 bar association members and Abbott Laboratories, Baxter Travenol, The Kemper Group, The News Sun, The Walgreen Corp., International Minerals and Chemicals, and the Lake County Bar Foundation.

In order to be eligible for this service, the clients must meet the financial guidelines defining poverty levels set by the federal government. All cases are screened by the Prairie State Legal Services and referred to the Volunteer Lawyers Program.

Each year, awards are

They have been made with the cooperation of CABAC and are currently being shown on US Cable, Channel 3. When filming is completed, they will be transferred to VHS tapes and will be made available to community organizations at no charge.

The latest in this series is entitled "How to Deal with Government Agencies" and is presented by Prairie State Legal Services, Linda Rothnagle, managing attorney, and Helene Hoffman, staff attorney for senior programs. It will be shown Monday, July 28, at 7 p.m., Thursday, Aug. 7, at 7:30 p.m. and Tuesday, Aug. 12, at 3:30 p.m.

Anyone having questions about the program, or the tape series, may contact Janet Morrison, program director, at 415 W. Washington St., Suite 002, Waukegan, IL 60085, or phone (312) 662-6925.

Indiana Dunes Provide Many Pleasant Memories

When I was six, my dad with me as moral support, would take his Model T truck up through the dunes country of Indian and Michigan to purchase a truck load of in-season fruit. That pleasant memory lives forever.

Now, I'm the driver and Model T is history. But, the dunes still have their charm and fruits that grow at this 45 degree latitude still taste good as ever. Forty-five degrees is midway between the North Pole and the Equator, and produces the same good fruits and vegetables found in England, France, Germany and so on, even though soils differ.

Our goal was Traverse City, Mich., where the annual Cherry Festival was in progress. The new Grand Traverse Resort Village north of town had just opened their $27 million, free-form, steel and glass enclosed, 15 story tower, prominent on a high ridge overlooking manicured, rolling, tree studded golf fairways and back dropped by Lake Michigan's East Traverse Bay.

With the added 186 luxury suites, the village attains a new level in world class resort accommodations and services. Bathrooms contain a second TV and telephone, king sized surge tubs, heat lamps and hair dryers. A hall hospitality bar is also at hand. Add an indoor sport complex for tennis, racquetball, swimming and an exercise, weight workout room. Then go outdoors for more swimming or to 36 holes of championship golf and the picture becomes complete.

The Bear, their tournament golf course, created by Jack Nicklaus, is in his words, "designed to be a happy course with big greens and interesting approaches. It's a challenge ready to be tested now, not in 20 years." Two festival weekends of total occupancy speaks for resort acceptance. Details are available by a note to Grand Traverse Village, Mich., 49610, or a call to 616-938-2100.

Because the Grand Traverse region is the nation's largest producer of cherries, they take their product seriously...a huge parade climaxed a week of festivities. An estimated 250,000 persons are involved as participants or visitors during this seasonal highlight week. If there is anything in which cherries are a part, it is probably available during this festival.

Traverse City ranks among the top national growth areas in tourism facilities. It already provides food, lodging, hospitality, water sports, dunes and scenery. Now, new housing, condo's and motel developments are attracting seekers of second homes or shorter recreation destinations.

I fished with a gentleman one morning, who spends May through October on Traverse City Bay and the balance of each year boats in Florida. Not everyone can be that lucky, but it symbolizes a trend for service and tourism business to replace heavy industry that has moved elsewhere. And, yes, we did catch fish, three lake trout, now in the freezer...about a three pound average.

There are many excellent shoreline locations to camp enroute. Large Federal, State and private campgrounds are very popular. We even saw a flimsy tent set up by a bike riding couple with their bikes parked alongside and a cooking fire underway. Biking is good exercise at hard to beat prices and a memorable way to tour.

Geo-Karis Announces Sept. 17 Golf Outing

State Sen. Adeline Geo-Karis, honorary chairperson of the Holiday Inn Gurnee and Rinnela Beverage CF Golf Outing, has announced that the third annual event will be held Wednesday, Sept. 17.

The charity event takes place at the newly renovated Midlane Country Club in Waukegan. Proceeds benefit the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

The golf outing features foursome golfing with celebrity golf partners. The day-long event includes green fees, gas carts, locker room facilities, coffee and rolls, lunch and a prime rib awards dinner. Awards and prize drawings are conducted during the awards dinner. The $100 entry fee is tax-deductible.

Cystic fibrosis was the subject of a recent ABC made-for-tv movie, "Alex: The Life of a Child." CF causes a thick mucus to block the lungs and digestive system, resulting in breathing difficulties and malnutrition. CF is the number one genetic killer of youth.

For information on the CF Golf Outing or cystic fibrosis, call the CF Foundation at (312) 236-4491.

Former State's Atty. Gets Ben Ori Award

In a ceremony at the annual installation of officers dinner of the Lake County Bar Assn., Harry P. Breger, a former assistant Lake County state's attorney, was presented with the Benedict J. Ori Award.

The award was established by the Lake County state's attorney's office to honor the memory of Ben Ori, who died in 1985, shortly after his appointment as an associate judge.

"After Ben died last year, we, in the state's attorney's office felt that it was important to honor Ben's contributions to the people of Lake County, law enforcement, the Lake County Bar Assn. and the judiciary. Ben was a former first assistant state's attorney from 1970 to 1974. We are proud that the awards committee selected Harry P. Breger, who gave many years of his life as an assistant Lake County state's attorney," said State's Atty. Fred Foreman.

The recipient of the award must have served as either an assistant Lake County state's attorney or state's attorney and distinguished himself in service to the state's attorney's office, law enforcement, the private practice of law, or the judiciary.

Pamphlets Available

The Lake County clerk's office has a new pamphlet available to inform voters about procedures for absentee voting, announced County Clerk Linda Hess.

The new pamphlet is designed to make absentee voting easier. It tells the four easy steps necessary to vote by absentee ballot.

The pamphlets have been distributed to all township and municipal offices in the county, or they can be picked up in the Lake County clerk's office in Waukegan.

Questions about absentee voting can be answered by Joan Dehmow of the elections department and she can be reached at (312) 360-5912.

United Way Sets Campaign Goal

The United Way of Lake County is determined to keep pace with the changing human service needs of the Lake County community," commented Chris Stevens, vice president of allocations as she announced the 1987 United Way agency funding allocations.

Fifty-three volunteers worked a total of 2,800 hours reviewing program descriptions, meeting with agency staff and boards, touring agency facilities, and ultimately struggling long and hard with tough decisions about which program to fund. We are confident that the decisions we have made reflect the desires of the whole community—which is what the United Way of Lake County is all about—volunteers working together at all levels to make Lake County the very best community in which to live and work," she added.

The 94 programs funded represent 35 United Way agencies providing a myriad of services including rehabilitation for handicapped children and adults, employment assistance for physically or mentally disadvantaged persons, and home health services for the elderly. Approximately $2,803,688 has been earmarked for these programs.

Individual 1987 agency allocations are as follows:

A Safe Place/Lake County Crisis Center, $153,361; American Red Cross, Lake County Dist., Mid-America, $278,861; Barwell Settlement, Inc., $37,200; Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Lake County, $33,000; Cathone Charities of Lake County $222,827; Central Baptist Children's Home $50,434; Community Youth Network, Inc., $30,994;

Connection Telephone Counseling and Referral Service, $77,369; Countryside Assn. for the Handicapped, $56,056; Epilepsy Services for Northeastern Illinois, $43,000; Family Care Services of Lake and McHenry Counties $14,631; Family Service Agency of North Lake County, $249,181; Family Service of South Lake County $63,359; Glenkirk, $13,414;

Happy Day Nursery School and Children's Educational Center, Inc., $122,013; Illinois Prairie Girl Scout Council, $72,892; Lake County Council Against Sexual Assault, $86,663; Lake County Society for

Human Development, $94,769; Lake County Urban League, $107,791; North Chicago Civic Service Assn., $6,000;

Northeast Illinois Council, Boy Scouts of America, $93,601; Northwest Suburban Council, Boy Scouts of America, $7,210; Omni Youth Services, $83,543; Prairie State Legal Services, Inc., $33,611; Service Employment Redevelopment (SER), $52,470; The Northern Illinois Council on Alcoholism and Substance Abuse $62,367; The Salvation Army, $58,544;

United Service Organization, $31,909; Young Men's Christian Assn. South Genesee St. Branch, $72,605; Young Men's Christian Assn. of Greater Lake County, $101,861; Young Women's Christian Assn., $94,288; Young Men's Fellowship/Halfway House, Inc., $73,313; Youth and Family Counseling, $99,430; and Zion Benton Children's Service, $37,470.

Now that 1987 funding levels have been established, the United Way campaign will begin to insure receipt of the monies necessary to carry out these projections.

Bill Saxelby, vice president/midwest area manager, American Scientific Products Industrial, Baxter Travenol Laboratories, Inc., and 1986 campaign chairman, explained that: "The people of Lake County are forward thinking. We know that it is up to us to set the pace in planning our community's future. Our campaign goal is $3,600,000. We feel confident in meeting the challenge of this goal just as we feel confident in meeting the challenge of addressing the changing human service needs of our community. And, we have captured the excitement and enthusiasm of all of the people associated with the United Way of Lake County in our 1986 Campaign theme—SHARING—Caring in Spirit!"

Saxelby went on to explain that although the United Way campaign does not officially begin until September, the organization is always anxious to involve any interested community member. A major portion of the work of the United Way is carried out by hundreds of volunteers who work year round. For any further information telephone the United Way of Lake County office: (312) 662-3580.

Service Plans Bike-A-Thon

The University of Illinois Cooperative Extension Service is completing plans for a bike-a-thon. It will be held Sunday, Aug. 17, from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. The bike-a-thon is being held to raise funds to help offset anticipated budget cuts from the Gramm/Rudman Act.

The bike-a-thon is being sponsored by the Lake County Farm Bureau.

Dealing With Stress

Family Counseling Clinic, Inc., Grayslake, has scheduled a workshop for people who want to learn more about stress management. Participants will learn about warning signals, sources of stress, and management strategies. The workshop will be held Thursday, July 31, from 7 to 9:30 p.m., at the Family Counseling Clinic offices in Grayslake. For more information, call (312) 223-8107.

BUYING A HOME SATELLITE DISH IS COSTLIER THAN YOU THINK.

Before you spend your hard earned money on a satellite receive dish you should learn the facts.

This year popular premium services like HBO and Cinemax will begin scrambling their signals with highly sophisticated electronic encryption devices.

And this new technique won't be limited to just premium services. Many basic cable channels like ESPN, MTV and CNN have announced their intentions to scramble signals.

What does this mean for satellite dish owners?

In addition to paying several thousand dollars for the purchase and installation of a receive dish, it will be necessary to spend hundreds of dollars on descrambling equipment plus pay monthly service fees for each channel received.

Make your decision based on the facts.

Exclusive Interview With Governor Thompson Thompson Offers Help To Warren, Promises To Get Race Track

During his visit to North Point Marina in Winthrop Harbor on July 18, Governor Thompson gave Lakeland Newspapers an exclusive interview. Conducting the interview was Charles Johnston, a Lakeland staff editor. Following is a partial transcript of that interview.

Lakeland: Governor, now that the legislature has failed to act, what are you doing to keep the White Sox and Arlington Park in Illinois?

"We'll have the new race track in Lake County..."

Thompson: Well, first as to the White Sox, they're owned by a private organization. They have the right to take their team wherever they want to. I'd like to see it stay in Chicago. If they won't stay in Chicago, I'd like to see it stay in Illinois and I'll do anything I reasonably can to help achieve that.

At this point nobody has asked me for anything else in addition to the offer that I made in the City of Chicago, but I suspect that over the course of the summer they might. When I get a proposal I'll be glad to take a look at it.

As to Arlington Park, we got a good racing bill passed in the Senate...in a bipartisan bill sponsored by the Republican and Democratic leadership. It went to the house, Speaker Mike Madigan buried it in the rules committee (and) it never came out again.

At the end of session when we had another racing bill, the president of the Senate, Phil Rock, refused to call that because he was mad at what the House had done to him. So, because of a fight between two Democratic leaders, we got no racing bill and the Lake County project had to go on hold. I'm hopeful that after the election (when) tempers cool...the House and Senate will respect each other and work together towards a solution that I think we can find. We'll have the new race track in Lake County and we'll have redevelopment of Arlington Park between Cook County and Lake County. We'll have over a billion dollars in new investments, 16,000 new jobs.

Any politician that gets in the way of that ought to be kicked out.

Lakeland: You said that you vetoed the $375,000 in emergency temporary relocation funds for Warren High School because you can't fund every good, very good, or indifferent project that comes along. Which category does Warren fall under?

Thompson: That was a good project. That's the reason why we loaned them a million dollars last year. But there comes a time when you have to say, 'No, we don't have any more money.'

When the legislature adjourned, despite all the talking about how much money we didn't have, they gave me a budget that was $200 million over the one I put in to begin with. They had four or five single-spaced pages of what we call legislative add-ons: either good ideas that nobody else wanted to pay for; half-good ideas that nobody else wanted to pay for; or bad ideas that absolutely everybody refused to pay for.

Well, I've got a responsibility to state taxpayers and that responsibility encompasses saying, 'No,' when you get to the bottom of...taxpayers' pockets.

It may well be that (Warren) High School...can find some funds from the state board of education. I would encourage them to work with my office and the state board to try.

But I couldn't pick and choose among the projects (legislative add-ons) and I cut everybody's out.

Lakeland: Between new appropriations and re-appropriations, the legislature has approved about three-quarters of a billion dollars for Build Illinois. How much money will actually be available for Build Illinois programs this year?

Thompson: We're going to spend every penny they've appropriated.

...there are two problems. One, the legislature put far more Build Illinois projects into the bill than they gave me money to pay for. That makes them heroes and makes me the villain when I have to cut out the excess, but that goes with the territory.

Build Illinois is financed by bonds which are sold on schedule and so the spending goes out on schedule. You don't spend all the money at once and you don't spend any money until the local projects are ready. Some of the local projects aren't ready. As soon as the local project is ready to go and...they have obtained the local match, we'll release the state funds....

Lakeland: How much excess is there in the legislature's appropriation?

Thompson: Well, there's at least, uh... $120 million of excess this year.

Lakeland: From your comments today (at the

Governor James Thompson

North Point Marina dedication ceremony), is it safe to assume that projects that seek a loan rather than a grant are going to get the top priority? (Thompson had said at the dedication that he looked more favorably at Thompson: Well, loans instead of grants will get a priority and projects that will produce jobs over projects that don't produce jobs will get a priority - both in and out of Build Illinois.

"...any politician that gets in the way...ought to be kicked out."

projects that sought a loan than he did at people who came to him with their hand out saying, 'Gimme.'

Lakeland: What do you want Jim Thompson's legacy to this state to be?

Thompson: I want to continue what we've done in the last ten years - that is while we have reduced the percentage of people's income that goes to state and local taxes, we've increased dramatically state services. The Taxpayer's Federation of Illinois will tell you that compared to ten years ago when I became Governor, state and local government today takes a smaller bite out of the taxpayer's pocket... At the same time, the services that those taxes pay for have gone dramatically up. I can't think of a better way to run government than that.

I'd like to be remembered for being a good Governor who helped try (to) strengthen and diversify this state's economy in very difficult times and for giving strong leadership to this state.

Lakeland: Under what circumstances would you consider being a candidate for President in 1988? (This question caused an uproar. Sen. Adeline Geo-Karis, standing nearby, shouted that Thompson should be a candidate 'under all circumstances'.)

Thompson: Let's...let's... let's get this election over. I'm running for Governor. That's the only thing I'm running for and we'll let the future take care of itself.

Lakeland: Thank you, Governor.

Thompson: All right. Thank you.

Former Boy Scout Builds Trophy Case For Troop

Mike Stanek was a boy scout for only two years—from 1979 to 1981, but his scouting experiences left a permanent impression. Stanek, a 1986 graduate of Antioch Community High School, won second place in carpentry at state competition last spring for the Lake County Area Vocational School. Recently, he shared his carpentry skills and donated his time to the construction of a trophy case for Antioch's Boys Scouts of America Troop 92.

The trophy case is made from pine, stained honey-maple, and has two glass doors. The materials were donated by the Troop 92 Committee. The trophy case houses the troop's major awards and key photos.

Scoutmaster Bernie Dost and Committee Chair Harold Clark were delighted that a former scout who served only two years returned to perform a special good deed for the troop.

A new addition to Troop 92's trophy case is the second place trophy which the troop won in Antioch's Fourth of July parade. The float was mounted on the back of a flatbed truck owned and driven by John Torri. It depicted scouts at a campout eating hotdogs around a campfire next to pitched tents.

Troop 92 announced the winners of the 1986 meat raffle. Margaret McGrath of Trevor won the first place hind quarter. Tim Osmond of Antioch won the second place for quarter. Tony Darko of Chicago, Jerry Volp of Burlington and Kathleen Kelley of McHenry each chose a ham for the third, fourth, and fifth place prizes. Roger Edwards of Gurnee chose a turkey for the sixth prize.

Proceeds from the raffle are used to pay the fees of scouts who attend summer camp for two weeks at Camp Owasippe, Michigan.

In August, the troop plans a special high adventure trip to the Smoky Mountains in Tennessee. Funds for this event are provided in part by the donations of newspapers and aluminum cans that are deposited at the VFW paper trailer near the sawmill. The troop thanked all who bring their papers to the paper trailer and requested that people throw away all magazines, cardboard, and slick-print advertising.

Antioch's Troop 92 is sponsored by the Loyal Order of the Moose Lodge 525.

Announce Winners

Trophy winners from the Antioch Fourth of July parade were announced by parks and recreation director, Glenda Tomaschik.

Taking the first place trophy was boy scout pack 190. Scout pack 192 took second place and the State Bank of Antioch placed third.

Judges for the parade were Lt. Tom Fisher of the Antioch Police Dept., Phyllis Bucar of State Sen. Adeline Geo-Karis' Antioch office, and Joe Huber of the Antioch Public Works Dept. They reviewed the parade, as it passed down Main St., from the village hall lawn.

Kayden's donated the trophies that were awarded to the winners.

See Fair Skies As Triggering Record

All that stands between the 1986 Lake County Fair that opened Wednesday for a five-day run and a new attendance record is the weatherman.

Everything fell into place at the last minute, "like it usually does," one fair official affirmed, for a bigger and better exposition running through Sunday, July 27.

With sunny skies, "we'll break some records," declared Walter Krumrey, major dromo of the colorful event at Rtes. 45 and 120, and secretary of the fair association.

Attendance in the vicinity of 150,000 is regarded as "expected" by members of the fair board.

Riders in the English show class and 4-H youngsters and their ponies opened the fair at 8 a.m. Wednesday. Chicago radio personality Orion Samuelson did his popular "Noon Show," must listening for farm families, and the '86 fair was off and winging.

Wednesday night attractive young ladies from all corners of the county converged on the fairgrounds to bid the title of Miss Lake County Fair Queen.

General admission charge has been held at $3 for adults with children 12 and under admitted free. There is no charge for parking at the mid-county exposition center.

Judging in a wide category of events begins at 9 a.m. daily. Exhibit buildings open at 10 a.m. Commercial buildings are open to the public at 11 a.m. daily. The carnival midway opens at noon every day.

Sheriff Robert "Mickey" Babcox will defend his hog calling championship at 7:30 p.m. Friday, July 25.

One of the highlights of Saturday activities will be the auction of livestock champions beginning at 1 p.m. Anyone can bid on one of the many prize animals in competition at the fair.

"Big time" rodeo will be presented at 2 p.m. and 8 p.m. Saturday, Sunday, July 27, demolition derby racing takes center stage at the grandstand with heats beginning at 10 a.m. with the finale race set for 5 p.m.

Absentee Ballots Available

Applications for absentee ballots for the November election are now available in the Lake County clerk's office, reports County Clerk Linda Hess.

"People vote by absentee ballot for several reasons," explained Hess. "Some will not be in Lake County, either on business trips or vacations, on election day; others may not be able to go to the polling place because of physical problems; and students attending colleges outside the area are able to vote by absentee ballot."

"You can request an application by calling the office, by writing or visiting the office in person. The ballot will be mailed in late September when actual absentee voting can begin," Hess continued. "Applications will also be available in municipal and township offices and many libraries beginning in mid-August."

Call the county clerk's office at (312) 360-5912 to request the absentee ballot application or if you have questions about absentee voting.

Have I got news for you!

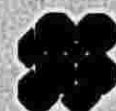

One of life's most joyful experiences—having a baby—is now even more special thanks to Rock-A-Bye Club, a unique free program at Northern Illinois Medical Center. Any expectant mother may enroll in NIMC's Rock-A-Bye Club, whether or not she intends to deliver here. The club includes a series of timely newsletters about the stages of pregnancy, childbirth, nutrition, relationships, siblings, and preparing for the big homecoming with the precious little bundle.

A special benefit is the sponsor booklet featuring discount coupons or free gifts from area businesses. NIMC's outstanding prenatal series covering the three trimesters of pregnancy answers questions for both parents, siblings and even grandparents. And the classes are free, too!

Rock-A-Bye Club can be one of the most beneficial memberships a mom-to-be ever enjoys. It's an extraordinary program for an extraordinary time in life, and will enhance the childbirth experience for first time mothers or those who have had a baby.

To join Rock-A-Bye Club, call NIMC at 815/344-5000, or look for the rocking horse label or membership card display in local stores. She can't keep the news under her hat, because NIMC knows about your great expectations.

Voter Registration Booth At County Fair

"Once again, Lake County residents will be able to register to vote while visiting the Lake County Fair," announced Lake County Clerk Linda Hess. "As we have done for the past several years, we have made arrangements to have a booth where my staff and I will be registering voters." The county clerk's booth will be in Building No. 7 and registrars will be available at all times during the fair hours. "If you have moved since the last election, you may also change your voter's registration at our booth," Hess said. Those interested in registering to vote must have two forms of identification in order to register. "Many forms of identification are acceptable," advises Hess.

"Some examples are: drivers license, social security card, student i.d., military i.d., check cashing card, insurance card and many others. At least one form of identification must include the voter's residence address."

Seventeen-year-olds are eligible to register to vote as long as they will turn 18 before the next election, which is Nov. 4. They too, must show two forms of identification.

"We feel it is important to make voter registration convenient to everyone in the county. Not everyone is able to visit an office during regular working hours," Hess explained, "and this is a good way to get around rigid office hours."

You won't be such a Cowardly Lion after you visit North Point Medical/Dental Center's "Road To Oz"

Some very interesting events will take place August 9 from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., at the clinic. Don't be surprised to meet Dorothy Gale or the Wicked Witch of the West or even Toto too!

North Point Medical/Dental Clinic will be hosting our second annual Child Identification Day with a new twist. The event will be named The Road To Oz and will include guided tours for children down the Yellow Brick Road of Oz which just happens to run through the clinic confines.

The children will become acquainted with the clinic services by visiting the nutrition center and the dentist office where a short film will be shown. While on tour they will receive balloons, toys, fruit and most importantly their own identification folder containing their photograph, fingerprints and vital statistics.

HOROSCOPE

BY SALOME

Aries (Mar. 21-Apr. 19) Not to fret, Lamb. Those shadows that seem to obscure the sunlight are just shady spots of fering some welcome relief from a heated situation.

Taurus (Apr. 20-May 20) A partnership offers continuing opportunities. Kin provide close support. Your efforts begin to pay off as results start coming through.

Gemini (May 21-June 20) You may have to postpone part of your travel plans until unforeseen complications are worked out. Use this time to make new business contacts.

Cancer (June 21-July 20) Take care to temper your temper when a business associate complicates an on-the-job problem. Handle the situation coolly and calmly.

Leo (July 21-Aug. 22) It's a good period for family-pride Leo and Leones who take pride in strong domestic ties. Seek out and repair weakened relationships.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Entertainment is high on your list these days. You'll be welcoming guests and accepting bids to attend various functions. Good contacts come through for you.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) Don't give up yet. Those apparently strong arguments against your stand have some unseen holes. Search them out and rebuild your own case.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) Offer on-the-job advice only when asked. Otherwise, let things settle down to normal lest you get lost in the current round of confusion.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) In spite of denials, your instincts are right. A temporary cooness has set in in an important relationship. Let it thaw on its own.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) An adversary pushes his/her weight around. You could get crushed in the competitive rush. Choose fancy side-stepping instead of direct confrontations.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) New demands on you compete with long-treasured values. Be careful about any trade-off you make. The results may not be worth the effort.

Pisces (Feb. 19-Mar. 20) A former friend wants a reconciliation. Be sure you talk out all resentments. Keeping a lid on still smoldering grudges can lead to a new explosion.
